NEW YORK ♦ ♦ N.Y.

We Aim to Please . . .

While the year 1941 marks the formal beginning of the Superior Seed, Bulb and Plant Co. we hasten to assure all who favor us with their patronage, that all associated with our firm have a thorough knowledge of the business and therefore are fully acquainted with the most reliable sources for seeds, plants bulbs and supplies.

The working head of this company has spent 38 years of his life in catering to the needs of garden and estate owners who desire the best in seeds, bulbs and plants. During this long period he was associated with five different New York seed houses of highly reputable character. Prior to the founding of the Superior Seed, Bulb and Plant Co. he was for 23 years, Vice President of the concern with which he was connected.

The reputation gained by him during these long years he aims to uphold and he will loyally be backed by those associated with him.

While the offerings in this list are necessarily limited, we are prepared to supply any item that may be considered as belonging to the seed, bulb and plant business, with the assurance that nothing but the finest quality will be handled. The company aspires to merit your confidence and patronage in future years, and feels sure of such after a trial order.

*Superior Seed, Bulb and

Lawns

Spring and Fall are the best seasons for the making of a new lawn and showery weather provides the ideal conditions. If the work is done in the late Spring or in the Summer and the area prepared without any rain in sight, soak the ground thoroughly almost to a mud condition and sow the seed about one to two hours afterwards.

Mowing may be begun when the grass is 3 inches high. Do not clip too closely the first time or two. The lawn may be clipped closer when it has become established.

Top Dressing. On a first-year lawn, a light application of Superior-X fertilizer about once a month ensures the correct feeding of the grass rootlets and enables the soil to provide the maintenance of moisture supply. Immediately after top-dressing a lawn, sprinkle thoroughly with water.

Maintenance. Every lawn should be well rolled at least once a year, especially after the Spring thaws. This rolling corrects irregularities of surface and firms the turf. Top dressing and frequent cutting are the most aggressive methods against weeds.

Every lawn will be improved by a light reseeding each Spring and Fall using say 25 per cent to 50 per cent of the quantities recommended for a new lawn.

Bare spots should be turned over with the spade, the soil thoroughly pulverized and fertilized and then heavily seeded. Thin places can be thoroughly disturbed with the use of an iron tooth rake and similarly treated.

After reseeding keep the lawn well sprinkled for a few days.

Attaining and Maintaining a SUPERIOR Lawn

To begin with, the essentials for a SUPERIOR-Lawn are excellent drainage and at least 6 to 8 inches of first-class surface soil. These matters should receive earnest attention. If it is necessary to purchase top-soil, care should be taken in obtaining same from pasture-land as soil from the woods or from truck-farms usually carries a great amount of weeds, which very often are a source of trouble and vexation for years.

Dig up or plow to a depth of at least 8 inches, removing all stones, roots, trash, etc., and breaking up all clumps of earth until the soil area is in workable shape.

Spread Superior-X Fertilizer at the rate of 2 lbs. to every 20 square feet and work this in with spade or rake. Superior-X Fertilizer ensures proper fertilization and at the same time provides the soil with moisture-attracting humic properties which sustain the growth of the grass during dry spells. After working in the fertilizer as above, rake the area to a smooth, even grade.

If time permits, do nothing further for about one week which will give the soil opportunity to settle and weed-seeds to sprout. Such weeds can then be destroyed and any surface irregularities due to the settling process may be corrected by a final raking, which also further prepares the topmost surface for the sowing of the grass seed.

The seed to be used is of vital importance. The Lawn Seed Mixtures herein listed are scientifically formulated from years of practical experience in the building of lawns of outstanding beauty and endurance.

The seed should be sown at the rate of 1 lb. to every 200 square feet (10x20 feet). The more seed sown the better the results and even twice the quantity named will do no harm. Broadcast half the seed in one direction say north to south, then the other half at right angles to the first sowing, say east to west. This method ensures even distribution. Wait for a calm day for it is most difficult to get a good job when there is a wind blowing. After sowing rake very, very lightly. Then go over the area with a light roller or spank down if no roller available.

Stars and Stripes

A Camellia type double of dark red, striped and specked with white. The flowers are not large but this plant is very vigorous and single bulbs often produce over a hundred blooms. One of the finest of the Le Papillon types.

All varieties, $7.50 per doz.

Double Camellia Flowered

This is a true strain of Camellia-flowered Doubles, which we have developed through years of hybridization. We do not believe it can be equaled anywhere at any price. The colors are true and uniform; the flowers are of the Camellia types, very large, and not just ordinary doubles.

Carnation Type or Double Frilled (Fimbriata Plena)

This type produces a large double, resembling a Carnation in form. The petals are frilled and have serrated edges. This Begonia is rapidly growing in popularity.

Crispa or Single Frilled

Produces large, profusely frilled and ruffled flowers of the Single type.

Single

This type produces the largest flower. Specimens sometimes measure 10 inches across.

Hardy Perennials

The Hardy Perennials are the backbone of the flower garden, most of them repeating faithfully each year with a minimum of attention.

While we have condensed our list considerably this year by rejecting many second-rate varieties, we have retained many of the old standbys which we think are still worthy of a place in any garden. After careful trials of the newer introductions, we have selected and added to our list only those which we consider to be the best, and now have one of the most complete lists of reliable, worth-while perennials to be found in this country.
